

Question 1:

Re: gaming for good. You seem to be suggesting that charities need to 'find' high level gamers as part of their ambassador / individual major donor work.

Gaming for Good: how to connect with influencers

Gaming for Good: how to find gamers

Question 2:

What is your advice as a first step for a small charity with limited resource who wants to get into the gaming for good world?

Gaming for Good: a guide to Twitch

Gaming for Good: how to engage the streaming community

Gaming for Good: how to find gamers

Gaming for Good: how to raise funds

Podcast: Gaming for Good: an essential fundraising tool

Question 3:

We're interested in gaming for good. We want to explore it this year but not sure if it's better to host it ourselves (e.g. on our own Twitch platform) or encourage gamers to run their own. Has anyone done one or the other and can see a difference in engagement?

Gaming for Good: the best platforms

Gaming for Good: the best games to raise funds

Question 4:

How do you think digital fundraising can be optimized for corporate partners? Are you seeing trends in what that might look like in the future?

How to engage corporate partners

How charities can find the right corporate partners

Inspiring charity and business partnerships

How to establish a corporate partnership

Question 5:

I would love to try gaming for good. I was thinking more in the mobile phone game industry any thoughts?

Gaming for Good: the best platforms

Gaming for Good: how to find gamers

Gaming for Good: the best games to raise funds

Gaming for Good: Gamers Without Borders

Question 6:

What are your thoughts about Payroll Giving in the future as a larger element of digital fundraising? It seems to answer some of the questions in the chat about optimising fundraising for corporate partners.

All you need to know about Payroll Giving

Question 7:

How would you raise money for Hospices? We are only allowed to target certain postcodes in the UK

50 of the best fundraising ideas for charity

How to build a fundraising strategy

Everything you need to know about fundraising